

hopelink

Free English Classes for Beginners

Do you want to learn...

- How to read and write in English
- Basic English conversations
- English to get a job
- And more?

Join this free class for beginners!

- Attend class two days per week on the Internet via Zoom; borrow a Hopelink computer if needed.
- Learn to speak, listen, read, and write in English.
- Develop basic digital skills such as typing and using Zoom.
- Prepare to get a job or enroll in English language classes at a local college.

Winter 2026

Registration:

November 1-30, 2025

Online Classes

January 12-March 19, 2026

Spring 2026

Registration:

February 2-March 13, 2026

Online Classes

April 13-June 18, 2026

Hopelink English for Work serves residents of north and east King County, Seattle, or neighboring cities. Neighboring cities include Edmonds, Mountlake Terrace, Renton, Burien, SeaTac, Tukwila, Des Moines, and White Center.

For more information and eligibility criteria, contact us at 425-250-3007 or English@hopelink.org.

We have access to language interpretation services.

Classes are open to all eligible persons regardless of race, ethnicity, gender, religion, or other identity.